She was a great eater, and I find baked beans don't go off near so fast as they did .--The w y that girl would dip into pork and beans is a caution to the rest of the family. The cow took it into her head yesterday to un away, which was very fortunate, I'm sure, for the barn caught fire last night and was consumed. I was in hopes the house would go too, for it's very inconvenient, but the wind was the wrong way, so it didn't receive much injury. Some boys broke into the orchard the other day and stripped all the fruit trees. I am very glad of it, for if they hadn't I presume the children would have made themselves sick by eating too much fruit. Hoping you enjoy yourself in California as well as we do at home, I remain your
